James Parker Jr was literally born “in the church” as he comes from three generations of preachers in his family. Rev. James graduated from Model Secondary School for the Deaf (MSSD) in Washington, D.C. and took courses in Pastoral Studies at North Central University (formerly known as Deaf International Bible College) in Minneapolis, MN. He has been actively involved to serve multiple areas of ministry since 1985. In 2015, Rev. James was ordained and positioned as Head Pastor for Hands of Grace Deaf Church, in San Jose, CA. He is married to Ann Lynn and together they have three daughters.

John Davis is CODA and has been pastoring for 12 years. He is currently the assistant pastor for Family Life Christian Center. He has experience in many ministries including youth ministry. He has traveled all over the united states preaching the gospel. “It’s my vision to see youth lives change to live powerfully for Christ at this retreat”
